 Group Video Presentation Submissions	-	A	0–100	90.00 %	issues in hearing the first person, don't think the street was the best place for recording? good introduction nevertheless. good analysis of fallacies but it would have been better to add exact references to the quotes you mentioned in the presentation. Presently, we are left wondering whether they really said those things. We know they said them yes, but that does not excuse you from showing from where exactly you took those quotes. That s an important point guys, which is also important for your academic development. good you pointed out fallacies committed both by Trump and Biden. Bit too much reading towards the end of the presentation. nice conclusion wrapping up the video. overall good work	-
